

Obituary

Born: Wednesday, December 7, 1921

Died: Monday, January 14, 2019

Percy H. Baum, 97, passed away January 14, 2019 in Walla Walla WA. He was born December 7, 1921 in Nampa ID to Carl E. and Augusta C. Baum, the fifth of eight children. The family moved to La Grande Oregon when he was three, where he attended school.

As a teenager he worked with his Father and Grandfather in a variety jobs. He joined the Civilian Conservation Corps as a cook and then moved to Pendleton where he drove taxi and city bus.

He served in the Army during WWII in Europe as a truck driver. After the war he returned to Pendleton where he met and married Delores Aichele. They had one son, Danny Baum. Percy had a number of jobs, notably he was a barber for thirteen years. He eventually retired as a custodian for the LDS Church of which he was a lifelong member.

Delores passed away in 1972 and Percy later married Hope Hyatt. That union brought Hope's seven children into the family. After his retirement he and Hope moved to Walla Walla Washington where he lived until his passing.

Percy was preceded in death by his parents, siblings, wives Delores and Hope, and grandson SSG Tane Travis Baum. He is survived by son Danny and wife Ruth Marie Baum, grandson Joseph Baum, grandson Thad T Baum and wife Angela, Tina Baum and great grandchildren, Dyllon, Hunter, Taylor, and Caelan, and numerous nieces and nephews. He is also survived by Hope's seven children and their children and numerous great grandchildren.

Services will be held at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, 1821 S 2nd Ave, Walla Walla WA at 11:00 AM on Saturday, January 19, 2019. Internment will follow at Skyview Cemetery, Pendleton, OR at 2:00PM.
