Jerry had a true zest for life and genuinely loved living. He embodied fun and was always up for an adventure, whether a cross-country road trip or just the latest roller coaster. He was always quick to help someone in need, whether he knew you or not. He loved the ocean and one day hoped to retire in St. Croix, U.S. Virgin Islands, to drink Mai Tais with his wife while wading in the crystal blue waters off the white sand beaches. Above everything though, being a father and grandpa is what gave him true meaning. His children and his granddaughter were his world and gave him an immeasurable sense of pride. His passing leaves an unfillable void in this world.

He is survived by his mother, Janet L. Jones Lambert; his wife, Kimberly J. Powell; his children, Kay-Cee, Cassidy and Carson Jones; his granddaughter, Lilly Marie Sohler; his brothers and their spouses, Kevin and Tami Jones of Costa Mesa, California, and Ken and Shannon Jones of Conway, Arkansas; nephews, Drew and Sam Jones of Fort Smith, Arkansas, and Jacob Jones of Conway, Arkansas; niece, Savannah Jones of Conway, Arkansas; and, several aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was predeceased by maternal grandparents Lewis A. and Ruth D. Olson; paternal grandparents Ralph W. and Juanita Jones; and, his dad, Charles A. Jones.

No memorial service has been immediately planned but will be forthcoming. The family will notify friends and loved ones when the service is scheduled.
